LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING 2 Kings 5: 14 - 17

A reading from the second book of Kings.

Naaman the leper went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child.

Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. 'Now I know' he said 'that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel.
Now, please, accept a present from your servant.' But Elisha replied, 'As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing.
' Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, 'Since your answer is "No", allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer

offer holocaust or sacrifice to any god
except the Lord.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps. 97: 1 - 4

R. The Lord has shown his salvation to the nations.

1. Sing a new song to the Lord for he has worked wonders.
His right hand and his holy arm
have brought salvation. [R]

2. The Lord has made known his salvation;
has shown his justice to the nations.
He has remembered his truth and love
for the house of Israel. [R]

3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
Shout to the Lord all the earth,
ring out your joy. [R]

SECOND READING 2 Timothy 2:8 - 13

A reading from the second letter of St. Paul to Timothy

Remember the Good News that I carry.
'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal - but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it.

Here is a saying that you can rely on:

If we have died with him, then we shall live with him.

If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him. If we disown him, then he will disown
us. We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful, for he cannot disown his own self.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
For all things give thanks,
because this is what God
expects you to do in Christ Jesus.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Luke 17: 11 - 19

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus!
Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All bow for following three lines:

and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness
of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Pray brothers and sisters,
May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Accept, O Lord, the prayers of your faithful with the sacrificial offerings,
that, through these acts of devotedness,
we may pass over to the glory of heaven.
Through Christ our Lord.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right and just.

SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

AFTER THE CONSECRATION

The mystery of faith.
We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Behold the Lamb of God,
Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The rich suffer want and go hungry,
but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

We entreat your majesty most humbly, O Lord, that, as you feed us with the nourishment which comes from the most holy Body and Blood of your Son,
so you may make us sharers of his divine nature.
Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

CONCLUDING RITE

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.

May the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, ✠ and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and
remain with you for ever.
Amen.

Go in peace,
glorifying the Lord by your life.

Thanks be to God.

Prisoners' Sunday
We come in thanks to God for his presence and care in our lives.
The gospel is an invitation from Jesus to give thanks. If we think over all we can be thankful for, we often find more than we realised.

Sometimes when we do a good deed for someone, we expect them to be grateful. And we may get annoyed if they do not seem to show their gratitude. We may decide that they do not deserve our help again. But not Jesus.
Jesus neither asked for, nor wanted, gratitude. Often when he cured people, he told them to go away and "tell no-one." Everything Jesus did was "for the glory of God," not his own personal gratification. The story of the ten lepers is about nine (presumably) Jews and one Samaritan.
Jesus reminds us that God has no favourites. When one particular group claims that they have a special relationship to God, it can make them feel somehow superior or gives them some privileged status vis-a-vis others, and can sometimes lead to intolerance (Catholic/Protestant in Northern Ireland), persecution (Hindu/Muslim in India today) or war (Jew/Muslim in Gaza). The Jews believed that they were the chosen people, who faithfully obeyed the laws that God had decreed, unlike the Samaritans. Righteous Jews would have nothing to do with Samaritans, in fact they would not even speak to them (John 4 v 9). And they believed that God would, therefore, have no time for Samaritans either. Jesus reminds us that no group has an automatic special relationship with God. That is something that each of us, individually, has to earn. In this encounter, it is the Samaritan, not the Jews, who earned that special relationship.

Fr. Peter McVerry

Jesus' Story

Fr. Liam Hickey

Ten people had skin disease. They had to leave home and live in the fields. They saw Jesus passing and shouted at Him, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us." Jesus stopped and listened to them. Jesus said, "Go and let the priest see you." As they went, they were all healed. There was one foreigner, and he was the one who said "Thanks." Even when we don't say Thanks, God loves us, but we are happier when we do give thanks.
